

[County Clerk] Reminds Hoosiers of Upcoming Registration Deadline

County Seat, IN – [county clerk's name, county name] Clerk reminds voters that April 7th is the last day to register to vote for the Primary Election on May 6, 2008. Registration applications must be received in the office, by mail or in person, by the close of business that day.

Voter registration forms and instructions for submitting them are available at the Clerk's Office or on the Secretary of State's website at www.sos.IN.gov. Voters may also register at numerous government offices, including the Bureau of Motor Vehicles.

Voters can check their registration status as well as find the location of their polling place by visiting www.IndianaVoters.com. This process was made possible with the implementation of Indiana's first-ever, statewide voter file system linking all 92 Indiana counties with several key state agencies.

Residents of other states currently in Indiana but planning to vote elsewhere can check their registration and voting information by using a new resource from the National Association of Secretaries of State. The new "Can I Vote?" website, at www.canivote.org is a useful tool for out-of-state voters who want to locate their polling place, research the registration deadline of their home state, and generally prepare for casting their ballots on Election Day.

April 7th, 2008 is the first day to vote in Indiana in person before an absentee voter board in the office of the county clerk or board of elections and registration.

Hoosier voters are strongly encouraged to make sure their voter registration information is accurate and up to date, ensuring their voice will be heard on Election Day. Questions may be directed to the [insert county name] county voter registration office at xxx-xxx-xxxx or the Hoosier Voter Hotline at 866-IN-1-VOTE.

###